WASHINGTON CRITIC.

NEWS OF THE DAY. Recent Happenings of Interest Condensed

for the Hasty Reader. A London society paper has announced that there has been a quarrel between the Duke of Marlhorough and Mrs. Paran Stevens on account of the former's mar-rings with Mrs. Hamersley. Mrs. Stevens of account of the former's mar-riage with Mrs. Hamersley. Mrs. Stevens, it is now learned from a private letter just received at Newport from Lon-don, did her best to break up the match. secause she had never been particularly a love with the present Duchess of Mariborough. The letter also states that the Buchess of Mariborough proposes visiting New York the latter part of October.

William Frishy, an old colored man in Philadelphia, was sentenced yesterday to five years in the penitentlary for swin-dling. He was in the liabit of obtaining sums of money ranging from $5 to $10 from colored servant girls on the false representation that their brothers or husbands were in jail and needed help. Judge Bregy denounced his crime as being of the meanest kind, and imposed the heaviest sentence he could give. Frisby came to Philadelphia from Baltimore, and is said to have served two years there for similar offenses. The stockholders of the Traction Company of Philadelphia held their annual meeting yesterday. The report showed receipts amounting to $2,849,201,73 and expenses of $2,734,913,33. President Kemble stated that the experiment of the control of the c of five-cent fares had not been finan-cially successful. That was the reason for adopting eight-cent exchanges.

All the members of the Slate and Mantel Roofers Union, of New York City, went out on strike yesterday, for recognition of their union. The strike has been contemplated several times this season, but it was not decided upon until yesterday. The strikers number about seven hundred and fifty.

Jack McAuliffe and Billy Dacey have signed articles for a match for $1,000 and the light weight championship. They are to meet at 133 pounds six weeks from date, within 500 miles of New York City. Dooney Harris will train McAuliffe and George Young will mentor Dacey.

Emperor Francis Joseph, in an order the day, expresses gratification at the bearing of the troops on the occasion of the review. The Emperor, accompanied by the Crown Prince, has started for Vienna, via Budweis, where he will in-spect the damage done by the floods. The jury at Bangor, Me., in the case of A. G. Sellon, charged with stabbing and killing a fellow postal clerk, Jeremiah Sinclair, in a postal ear last June, after being out seventeen hours, reported that they could not agree, and were dis-sharged. Sellen was allowed to go un-der $5,000 bail.

Hon. J. C. Payne, of Covington, Wyo-ming County, N. Y., committed suicide Monday by shooting himself in the head. He was a member of the Assembly from Wyoming County several years ago. He had suffered from mental trouble for three years past. : Sam Scanlan, an ex-fireman, of Louisrille, Ky., while crazed by liquor, yester-ing shot his wife three times and then that himself. Scanlan had been on a spree since his brother Jim, a race-course man, was killed in St. Paul a month ago, Both he and his wife will die. William Miller, a private officer, of Al-

A POLITICAL STRAW.

Street Railroad Mon Opposed to Mr. Cleve-land's Tariff Message. A prominent business man of Washington said to a Critic reporter to-day; " I was in New York Saturday and took a ride on the Third avenue streetcar line up to 65th street, and during the trip got into conversation with the conductor, whom I found to be a very observing and intelligent young man. We clusted on various matters, his talk being generally in response to my inquir-

Finally I asked him about the politiribility I asked him about the politi-cal situation. He replied that his occupa-tion kept him so busy that he had no time to fool with politics generally, but the employes and laborers of the Third avenue line, numbering over 1,300, were solid in their views and would accordingly at the Presidential

For whom will they vote?" I nalred 'For whom de you suppose?' he

"For whom do you suppose?" he queried in reply
"I den't knew Pin sure. I'm not a resident of the city, but I know it gives large Democratic majorities, and presume that is your ticket."
"Not much this time' he responded with carnestness, "We will vote for Harrison, I den't believe forty of the whole force will vote any other ticket."
"Why such manimity! I asked.
"All on account of Cleveland's turiff message. We know on which side the message. We know on which side the laboring men's bread is buttered and we propose to vote to protect our own interests. Cleveland was all right till he sent in that message. He will find that his free trade message will prove to be the Burchard of the Democratic party in this Campaign."

"At this point in the conversation I had reached my destination and got off the car. I was impressed by the conductor's earnestness of expression, and reflected that if his views indicated the feeling generally among the laboring people there the political situation in people there the political situation in New York was in a glorious muddle." H. C. Wilson and family, of Donaldson-ville, La., and John Sheridan of Piedmont, Va., are at the Motropolitan.

PROMINENT LADY ANGLERS. Well Known Society Women Who Are

Disciples of Izaak Walton. The best salmon fishing on this side of the water is found in the provinces. In the wild waters of the Cascapedia, the late President Arthur, of beloved memory to all the "brothers of the angle," landed his famous fifty-pound salmon, the largest ever taken with a fly in North America. Many of the wealthiest society men in New York, besides President Arthur, such as W. K. Vanderbilt, Robert G. Dun and many others who belonged to the New York Club, are willing to pay a fabulous price for the best part of the Resti-gouche. A London paper recently said; "When an American takes a fancy to a particular river there is no mistake about it

Miss Kate Hillard, enthusiastic fishermalden, Miss Kate Hillard, enthusiastic hishermatich, is an artist of noted ability. She was for many years the president of the Woman's Club of Brooklyn, and her charming essays and poems have graced the Atlantic, the Galaxy and many other periodicals. She is the happy owner of a cottage at Keene Flats, which is surrounded by trout streams, and in her brilliant mountain costume, looking like a red bird, she has often allied forth with her rod over her shoulder and returned with a fine string of trout that graced the table of her friends. Miss Hillard is a great favorite with Old Mountain Phelos, the noted Adirondack guide, who is no respecter of persons. In his queer, cracked voice he has more than once observed: "I tell ye, when Kate makes up her mind ter git a mess A telegram received in Baltimore yes-orday from Harvard College Observa-brooks purty lively ter git ahead o' her!

Mrs. Cornelius Van Brunt of Fifty-severith street, well known among fash-ionable society, is passionately devoted to trout fishing, and often casts her fly with her husband in the beautiful lake, 2,600 feet above the sea, hidden in the wilds of Sullivan the sea, hidden in the wilds of Sullivan County, which is the property of the Wilderness Club. The wife of "Norman," the well-known writer on fishing topics, is also a devoted fishwife. Mrs. W. D. Temlin of Duluth, Minn., and Miss Josephine Hopkins of Catskill, N. How to Eat a Soft-Boiled Egg.

The very nicest way of eating a softbolled egg is from the shell, says Table Talk, of Philadelphia. Place the small end of the egg into an egg cup, or you may stand it in a napkin ring. The large or buttend of the egg should have the shell removed from it; then if you take away a small piece of the white you have ample room for salt, pepper and a small piece of butter, which may be mixed with the egg without difficulty. Longhandled porcelain teaspoons are the nicest and only proper things to serve with boiled eggs. Softboiled eggs may also be caton from a heated egg-glass; the egg being opened carefully and turned into the glass. Salt, black pepper and butter are the proper seasonings of the egg into an egg cup, or you may stand
